

UPLANDS PAST PUPILS ASSOCIATION

OPENING of the BUTTON TRAINING POOL

The pool generously donated by past pupil Andrew Button and the surrounding infrastructure funded by UPPA

HAPPY DAYS for the Uplands Prep “little ones” that will soon learn to swim in their pool... just a hop and skip from their classrooms.

Speeches by Dave Ernstzen (Prep headmaster) and Murrough Davies-Webb (UPPA Chairman)

Kevin Kay (past pupil and UPPA committee exco member) unveiling the plaque

Kevin Kay cutting the ribbon

The intricately crafted pretty mosaic mural created by Jen Fry for the pool pavilion.
Duncan Mcregor (past pupil and UPPA committee member);
Sally Kay (past parent) and Judy Greathead (past parent)

The Prep Grade 7 pupils launch the debut dive and swim into the Button Pool, closely followed by the little ones ...

Shock at the temperature of the water on the chilly wintry August day

... now for the little ones to get stuck in and explore their new pool. Phebe Tyson is ecstatic!

... the cold is just too much for Jessica van der Merwe

Wooden School Grade 000s decide to brave the water. Ewan Taylor, Jessica van der Merwe, Max Dalrymple and Matt Greathead